

Lyrics:

[intro]

[chorus]

I'm addicted to you my love
So why wouldn't you stay
You made my mind run, you made my heart break,
But still I long for you to come back one day

[verse 1]

I never expected
To come off this way
But oh I know
You can't tell how life goes
And still I'll wait for you to come back one day

[chorus repeats]

[verse 2 and 3]

I know they'll call me a fool
For thinking you'll come back one day
But I'll wait
Oh I'll wait
Until you come to tell me everything's ok

I'm sick of this old love
It's worn out for me
I'm in need of some new lovin
I'm in need of you, oh you, oh my, my boo, I'm in need of you today
Because I'm
